

TRAVEL AND HOSPITALITY

POLICY

Board Members and employees are entitled to reimbursement for travel and miscellaneous expenses incurred in the course of their work on behalf of the Agency. Consultants and contractors also fall under this policy but under no circumstances can hospitality, incidental or food expenses be considered allowable expenses for them unless the contract specifically provides for it.

The expense rules will be available to the public on the organization's website.

The following principles will govern travel expense reimbursement practice at the Agency.

Expenses must be:

- Work related
- Modest and appropriate
- Strike a balance between economy, health and safety and efficiency of operations

The Agency assumes no obligation to reimburse expenses which do not comply with this Policy. In the event of an overpayment of expense claims, such overpayment will be recovered promptly from the payee.

Employees are obliged to familiarize themselves with this Policy and to seek clarification from their Managers if required.

Managers are responsible for ensuring compliance with this Policy and for taking intended action if required.

Exemptions to this Policy:

The Board of Directors of Anishinaabe Abinoojii Family Services shall be exempt from the necessity to provide receipts for meals, as they are not employees of the Agency. The Board of Directors will be credited with an allowance for meal costs incurred in the conduct of agency business based on the allowable meal expense rates set.

- .16 Meal Expenses – Clients

Anishinaabe Abinoojii Family Services believes it is not wise to encourage the expectation that workers will always take a client (child or adult) out for a meal/snack when visiting and AAFS does not encourage this practice. However, AAFS recognizes that there are circumstances where workers may purchase meals/coffee for clients. In cases where this is authorized by the Manager these expense will be reimbursed within the same limits as meal expenses, above. If a worker has doubt about whether an expense is appropriate, they should consult the Manager PRIOR to making the expenditure.

.17 Hospitality

Hospitality is the provision of food, beverages, accommodation, transportation or other amenities at agency expense to persons who are not employees of the Agency, except when hospitality is given as a measure of appreciation and incentive.

Hospitality is only to be extended by the Executive Director or Board of Directors with prior approval of the Executive Director. Hospitality should be extended in an economical, consistent and appropriate way when it will facilitate agency business or is considered desirable as a matter of courtesy. Hospitality expenditures should be consistent with the status of the guest(s), the number of persons attending and the business purposed to be achieved.

Where hospitality events are extended by the agency and where guests include vendors or prospective vendors to the agency, managers are responsible for obtaining prior approval to ensure that the hospitality provided does not give, or is not perceived to give, preferential treatment to any vendor.

Acceptance of hospitality from vendors, current or prospective, may constitute a conflict of interest and may therefore be disallowed. Managers are responsible to ensure that employees are aware of their conflict of interest obligations.

Hosts must ensure that hospitality expense records include:

- The circumstances of the event (business purpose)
- The form of hospitality
- Cost supported by receipts
- Name and location of establishment
- Names, titles and companies or other attendees
- Approvals by appropriate individuals in the agency

.18 Recipients of Hospitality

Gifts of appreciation may be accepted if token in nature, valued at up to $30.00. Gifts valued above $30.00 must be justified and approved by the Manager or Director of the recipient. In all cases where hospitality is provided to agency staff or Board members, conflict of interest guidelines will prevail in determining whether such hospitality should be reasonably accepted. If in doubt, a worker should consult with their Manager.

.19 Guidelines for Exceptions

Any exceptions to this Policy MUST be approved by the Executive Director. The rationale for any exception must be fully documented on the claim/statement.

Review of Policy

This Policy will be reviewed within a four year cycle or sooner if necessary.
